Appeal

Request for Financial Aid Reconsideration

 Student Name

 Wellesley ID Number

Section 1: Guidelines

Students may request reconsideration of their financial aid eligibility if there has been a significant change in their circumstances or if they have circumstances that were not reported on their initial financial aid application. We encourage students to schedule an appointment with their counselor in advance of submitting this form to discuss their circumstances. Students may be contacted for additional information or documentation. All documentation must be submitted to Collegeboard's IDOC and SFS will not accept appeals submitted by email.

Requests for Reconsideration for the current academic year must be submitted by the end of December. Any requests submitted after will be reviewed in the subsequent academic year.

Section 3: Personal Statement

You must include a personal statement explaining the reason for this request for reconsideration of aid. Provide as much detail as possible to help us better understand your situation. Please attach your statement to this appeal before uploading to IDOC.

Section 4: Certification and Submission

Our Financial Aid Review Committee reviews requests for review in the order that we receive them. Response time will vary based on volume of requests and time of year. Generally, students can expect a response in approximately 10 business days. The Financial Aid Review Committee will review and respond to you in writing.

By signing this worksheet, we certify that all information reported is complete and correct. We understand that purposely providing false information on this worksheet may result in fines, imprisonment, or both. In addition, all institutional aid eligibility will be forfeited. Failure to complete this form in its entirety may cause processing delays.
